WELCOME

DTC MISSION

Promoting children's arts and arts education.

Showcasing creativity in public park space
featuring decorated lifeguard chairs with music and dance programming.

Jacksonville Beach Deck The Chairs entrance has welcomed more than .5 million visitors since 2013

Through your continued support, Deck The Chairs (DTC) has become one of north Florida's most impactful community arts organizations.

In 2022 Jacksonville Beach Deck The Chairs was featured in Southern Living Magazine, a Fox News national broadcast story, and entertained more than 110,000 people in the oceanfront park celebrating the tenth JBDTC season. Organizers estimate that more than 30,000 children shared collective joy and creativity of the season through the work of DTC partners and volunteers.

An estimated 1300 kids were directly impacted by JBDTC holiday outreach experiences. We are grateful for your continued commitment to our mission.

- 1) 300+ students received 2022 JBDTC community service hours
- 2) 500+ students supported 2022 JBDTC exhibit build and decorate
- 3) 500+ students participated in 2022 JBDTC holiday stage programs
